

Flower Panel

Designed by: Kay Molyneux

Feature your craft creations with this flower panel that blooms, off of the page using Graftix Opaque White Craft Plastic Film, White Inkjet Shrink Film, White Chipboard, and Artist-tac.

Supplies:

Graftix Opaque White Craft Plastic Film
Graftix White Inkjet Shrink Film
Graftix White Chipboard
Graftix Artist-tac
Flower Collage stamp of choice on a Stamping Platform
Transparent Watercolors
Water Spray Bottle
Cling Film
Black Versa Fine Clare Ink Pad
Anti-static Bag
Clear Embossing Powder
Craft Heat Tool
Red and White Butchers Twine
Black Oxide Ink Pad with Applicator Sponge
Hole Punch
White Thread
Hot Glue Tool

Directions:

1. Prep your surfaces by cutting the Graftix Opaque White Craft Plastic Film into 4" x 8 ¼" and make sure to save the surplus film.
2. Then cut the Graftix White Chipboard into 4 ½" x 8 ½".
3. Dust the Opaque White Craft Plastic Film with the anti-static bag then stamp the collage stamp onto it with the black Versa Fine Clare ink pad.
4. Apply the clear embossing powder and heat set using the craft heat tool.
5. Use the transparent watercolors to paint over the Opaque White Craft Plastic Film avoiding the main flower.
6. Spray the watercolor with water and cover with the cling film, bunching it up to form creases.
7. Then allow it to dry.
8. Stamp the flower element onto some spare Opaque White Craft Plastic Film with the black ink, cover with clear embossing powder and heat set. (Don't forget to dust with the anti-static bag.)
9. Cut out the flower from the spare Opaque White Craft Plastic Film and lightly heat the design to shape it.
10. When watercolor painted Opaque White Craft Plastic Film is thoroughly dry, remove the cling film.
